Sexual Battery

Suspect: Male, white, 30's, 5' 10", 200 lbs, heavysset, unshaven, wearing a blue or white T-shirt, shorts, white socks and white tennis shoes.

On Sunday, June 22, at approximately 10:00 a.m., an unknown suspect entered an unlocked apartment in the 1700 block of Marguerite. The suspect told the resident that he was on a fraternity scavenger hunt and had to dance for the resident. Upon completing his dance, the suspect hugged the resident and placed his hand on her buttocks. A similar incident occurred on April 12, 2008 in the 700 block of Begonia in Corona del Mar. A similarly described suspect had entered the unlocked residence and told the residents he was in a fraternity and had to dance for them. The suspect touched one of the resident's hands prior to leaving.

The Police Department recommends that you always lock the doors and windows to your residence at all times. In addition, if an unknown person enters your residence, it is recommended that you dial 9-1-1 immediately. If you have any further questions in reference to home security or would like to schedule a home security inspection, you can contact Crime Prevention Specialist Andi Querry at 949-644-3699.

Anyone with information regarding the above described suspect or if you experienced a similar crime, please contact the Newport Beach Police Department at (800) 550-NBPD. The public is encouraged to call with any information and messages can be left anonymously if desired.
