FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 4, 2010

"One Hundred Years of Scouting" is the title of a talk by Phil Brigandi, local historian and Eagle Scout. The talk (with slides) will be given at Sherman Library & Gardens in Corona del Mar on Wednesday, February 17, 2010 at 7:30 p.m.

This year marks the 100th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts, both nationally, and here in Orange County. Phil Brigandi has just published a history of Scouting in Orange County, and will share some of those stories, including the 1953 National Jamboree held in Corona del Mar.

This program is part of an Evening Lecture Series. It is free and open to the public. As accommodations are limited please call the Gardens Office for reservations at (949) 673-2261.
